NOW COMES Sergeant Owen Dugan affiant, being duly sworn and on oath, deposes and says:

1. On 1/5/23 upon coming in for shift I observed Eric Gravel (DOB [REDACTED]) whom I know from a plethora of prior law enforcement interactions, sitting in his personal vehicle (VT registration "I AM") that I am also familiar with, parked on Weaver St. just north from the back parking lot of city hall where employees park, faced south bound. He was staring at me from the second I parked my vehicle.
2. As I proceeded to exit my vehicle Gravel immediately got out of his truck and began screaming obscenities and threats at me based on his current lawsuit with the city, and general disparaging things about me "go fuck yourself" "you're a piece of shit" etc. This went on for several more hours with him yelling at other employees as they left / came into work.
3. As Det. Bova was speaking with a male in the lobby (Marcel Lesperance), Gravel went on fit in the street filming the interaction through the vestibule doors, while yelling outside causing a disturbance. It should be noted that Lesperance came in later that night to fill out a statement in which he stated that Gravel was threatening him upon leaving the PD (see case # 24WS000081).
4. After this behavior continued for several hours Gravel eventually left. Later that night, I was driving behind TD Bank on Weaver Ln. when Gravel approached my vehicle on foot. He proceeded to stand in front of my vehicle and continue his usual banter and expletives towards me. I ordered him to move and slowly turned the cruiser around him, as it was obvious he was trying to make me contact him so he could claim I hit him.
5. Later on while parked nearby, he drove up next to me with his window down pointing something at me. I activated my alley lights to see him / what he was holding as it's an officer safety issue in general, let alone the fact Gravel targets PD employees. He then accused me of trying to run him over, screamed at me with some more expletives and drove off. He then circled back several times to flick me off with his middle finger out the window and accelerate his vehicle in a burn out style fashion to draw attention to himself, to which I did not engage.
6. Later on in the shift on 1/6/24 at approximately 0134 and 0139 hours, Gravel called the Winooski Police Dept. sounding audibly intoxicated (extremely slurred mumbled speech), ranting in general and using expletives. He at one point asked

Approximately between 1430 and 1445 on January 5th, I was walking in the back parking lot of the Winooski Police Department. Before entering the building a white male in a black truck began yelling in my direction. I recognized the male as Eric Gravel. Although I was unable to make out what gravel was yelling it startled me.
